DETAILED ACTION

1. In response to the telephonic interview conducted on September 26, 2006, Examiner has withdrawn the restriction requirement of claims 28-36, examiner has withdrawn the rejection of claims 1-18 under 35 U.S.C 101, and examiner has withdrawn the rejection of claims 1-27 under 35 U.S.C. 102.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Gunner Leinberg on September 26, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claims 29-36 (line 1, respectively), the term "method" has been replaced by the term "system".

3. Claims 1-36 have been allowed.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art of reference, the Atkins reference, teaches increasing the net worth of an individual by using funds, normally used for amortization of a loan, to invest in securities. Atkins fails to teach determining a plurality of loans which satisfy a criteria, selecting those loans that satisfy the criteria, and creating a class of loan securities using the selected loans. Likewise, Atkins fails to teach a system, computer readable medium or means for implementing such a method.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

The "Wall Street Tailors MBS Cash Flows in Attempt to Match Investor Tastes" reference has been included for its teaching of mortgage securities.
